Welcome Rebecca Moorman

Women's Philanthropy is pleased to welcome our new Executive Director, Rebecca Moorman! Becca began her IU Foundation career in October of 2013 as an Associate Director of Regional Development and was promoted in May of 2016 to Director of the Regional Development Team. Becca has led a wonderfully talented group of Associate and Senior Associate Directors of Development who regularly meet and exceed ambitious fundraising performance metrics. Becca earned both her bachelor of science (2009) and master of science (2011) degrees from Indiana University's School of Public Health.

LITTLE 500 TENT PARTY

Thank you to everyone who came to the tent party and 32nd Women's Little 500 race. We were proud to help Girls Inc sponsor the winning team, Teter Cycling. Thank you to everyone that donated to the Colloquium for Women of Indiana University Scholarship. This spring, Women's Philanthropy awarded $7,200 in scholarships to female riders. One recipient stated, "Thank you for this incredible honor and for being one of the reasons why I can continue doing what I love at IU."

NYC EVENT

On April 10, Women's Philanthropy held a Special IU Day Celebration in New York City featuring IU Alumna Tracey Carisch, author of Excess Baggage: One Family's Around-the-World Search for Balance. A group of 29 alumnae and guests enjoyed this lovely evening of networking and inspiration from Tracey Carisch and IU's First Lady Laurie Burns McRobbie. Special thanks to Kim Pressman, Mary Ann Holand, and Michelle Brawner for hosting this event with Women's Philanthropy at IU.

IU DAY

IU Day was a huge success, with 49 alumni chapter events, 9,085 #iuday hashtag users, 85 countries

SAN FRANCISCO EVENT

On April 24th, First Lady Laurie Burns McRobbie and Forbes Tech Writer Biz Carson led a discussion in celebrating, 1,326 pounds of food donated to IU food pantries, and 4,135 gifts in support of IU. Thank you to everyone who participated in IU Day!

San Francisco about their careers as women in technology. Women's Philanthropy hosted 50 IU alumnae and friends for this fun and informative event.

Upcoming Events

MAY 16

Join us in Washington D.C. in May for a special presentation from NASA's planetary protection officer and IU Provost Professor Emerita Lisa Pratt. The event is a special partnership between Women's Philanthropy at IU, the College of Arts and Sciences, IU Parent Engagement, the Office of Congressman Jim Banks, and NASA.
